THE GOOD KITCHEN

We want you to know that everything here is absolutely delicious because we only use top quality products and ingredients. The source, quality and freshness of our ingredients are very important for us since most of our products are homemade every day, and we guarantee that what you eat and drink here would have the approval of any demanding grandmother.

That's why everything in our refrigerators and in our cupboards is of the finest quality.

We want you to know that our cakes and jams are handcrafted by us every day, as well as all the fillings, sauces, hummus, creams, quiches, waffles, etc., the teas and infusions are organic and are made with mineral water, our meats are from the local butchers where our grandmothers used to shop, and where our mothers still do... our fruit and vegetables are delivered to us daily from neighborhood stores, the fresh eggs are brought to us by our beloved "egg man", our Andino coffee is from Colombia and is freshly roasted in Malaga and poured directly into our coffee grinders, our bread is artisan, organic and baked with whole meal flour and many more products are carefully selected.

All our clients are children and grandchildren of San Chocolate, that is why we care about you so much.

Thanks for coming!
